The Fourth of July.

The day is near at hand; but no preparations have been made for it in Washington. Permit us to suggest that no party feeling should be evinced, but that in a national and appropriate manner the day should be celebrated by our whole people.

In these convention days, the newspapers general'y lack variety and interest. There is but one subject to engage the attention of editors, as well as others.

An additional express train has been placed upon the great central line of roads between New York and Buffalo, and the speed made is surprising. The Albany Atlas says of the express of Mouday, that the train left New York city at six, and ten minutes past ten the passengers and baggage were in the depot in Albany. It left New York at half-past ten, and reached Syracuse at ten minutes before three, 150 miles, and stopped half an hour for dinner in Utica. It was run over the Utica and Schenectady road inside of two hours, schedule time, 78 miles-over the Syracuse and Utica, 53 miles, in an hour and ten minutes, and over the Rochester and Syracuse, 104 miles, inside of three hours. This is time which has never been equalled in this country upon any road.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE

In the third week of June, 1852, will be commenced, in the city of Washington, a Weekly Campaign Newspaper, under the above title.

It will be devoted to the maintenance of genuine republican principles as avowed and practised by the great WHIG PARTY of the United States; to the preservation of the NATIONAL Union, and of the Rights of the States and the RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE under that Union: and in an especial manner to the election of GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT, as the nominee of the Whig National Convention, to the Presidency of this Republic.

It will be the agreeable duty of the editor to dwell and to descant upon the merits of a man around whose brow are entwined the laurels gathered on many a victorious field. During the long period of forty years his talents, his valor. and his humanity have nobly illustrated his country's honor; and the patriotic masses, the toiling millions of our widely-extended country, will, on the seventh of November next, arise in their power and majesty to bestow their suffrages upon their honored fellow-citizen-the hero, the patriot, and sage—and to proclaim THE GRATITUDE OF A REPUBLIC!
